AKHIL BHARAT KRISHI GO SEVA SANGH VISION STATEMENT

Our Vision :

- To raise human perceptions of the moral status of animals by recognising animals as sentient beings.
- To raise the legal status of animals to reflect their status as sentient beings, including protection in national and international law.
- By promoting animals rights, to further respect for both humans and non-human animals.
- To facilitate increased respect for all sentient life by promoting animal protection education, at all educational levels.
- To protect the environment by ensuring that farming and development activities are sustainable.
- To promote spiritual and healthy living while maintaining our glorified ancient legacy and culture.

AKHIL BHARAT KRISHI GO SEVA SANGH MISSION STATEMENT

Our Vision :

To ending the suffering, domination, exploitation, abuse, enslavement and use of animals worldwide for the purpose of food, pleasure, convenience and all other unnecessary reasons by providing information and resources to shift both individual and collective consciousness and action to living fully compassionate that completely free from animal products produced out of cruelty, exploitation and abuse that recognize animal's sentience and inclusion of our moral community.

OUR ENDEAVOR

Akhil Bharat Krishi Goseva Sangh firmly believes that India is fundamentally Agricultural State since times immemorial.

Our cattle wealth played the salutary role in building its structures - Social, Economy and Religious. The neglect of animals, indiscriminate encroachment of their habitats, plundering of Gauchar bhumi, relentless exploitations on all resources and non-human living beings and haphazard developments to cater human greed broke the entire ecosystem and caused irreparable loss to flora - faunas. Human greed has commenced undeclared war against nature. Earth is screaming and we are facing calamities in various forms. We at Akhil Bharat Krishi Go Seva Sangh firmly believe Jal-raksha, Van-raksha, Bhu-raksha and Pashu-rakshacan only save the planet therefore we strive for the welfare of all resources.

LAND MARK JUDGMENT IN THE HISTORY OF INDIA

Institution works toward implementation of animal welfare and environmental protection laws in true spirit. Organization's Research department timelessly works on how to mitigate cruelties on animals and conserve our natural resources. To achieve those objectives legal team of this institution incessantly delegating, representing with Law makers and spreading awareness with Law enforcing agencies. This institute strictly works within four corners of law.

Akhil Bharat Krishi Go Seva Sangh since inception played instrumental role in enacting and amendments of Animal Preservation Laws in India. During the year 2005, Bench in the Supreme Court of India comprising of seven honorable Judges upheld the Constitutional validity of the Gujarat Law imposing total prohibition on slaughter of entire cow progeny in Gujarat State V/s Mirzapur Moti Kureshi Kassab Jamat & Others, Civil Appeal no 4937 -4940 of 1998. Akhil Bharat Krishi Go Seva Sangh was one of the appellants in this case. After this historical judgment delivered by 6:1 Judges of Supreme Court in the year 2005, in the year 2006 M.P. Government amended its Law, imposing total ban on slaughter of entire cow family in M.P. State. The State of Delhi and Rajasthan enacted fresh laws to impose total ban on slaughter of cow and cow progeny in the State. Maharashtra State amended in the year 2015 once they received President's assent in the year 2015. Uttar Pradesh and Karnataka also enacted in same line.
